

Algonquin

"History repeats itself."
We are sure you have all at one time or another heard this saying. Many men have tried to prove this by comparing our historical men, leaders, events, and wars with the present one's. We, the members of the Algonquin staff, have tried to do this in a different sort of way. We have taken our experiences in high school and shown how it relates to that of ancient times. We invite you to share with us and see how history does repeat itself.

The 1970-71
Algonquin
Algonac High School

Love conquers all.

We took counsel together.

Take food as it comes.

Sit here with me.

Nature will out.

Let us all be friends.

Let any other that does this perish.

Do not detain me longer.

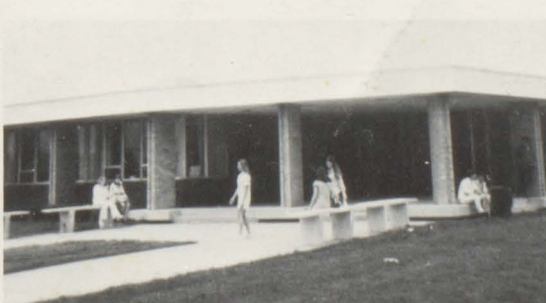

They told me of this country.

He was unable to make up his mind.

A devoted attendant was stationed by her side.

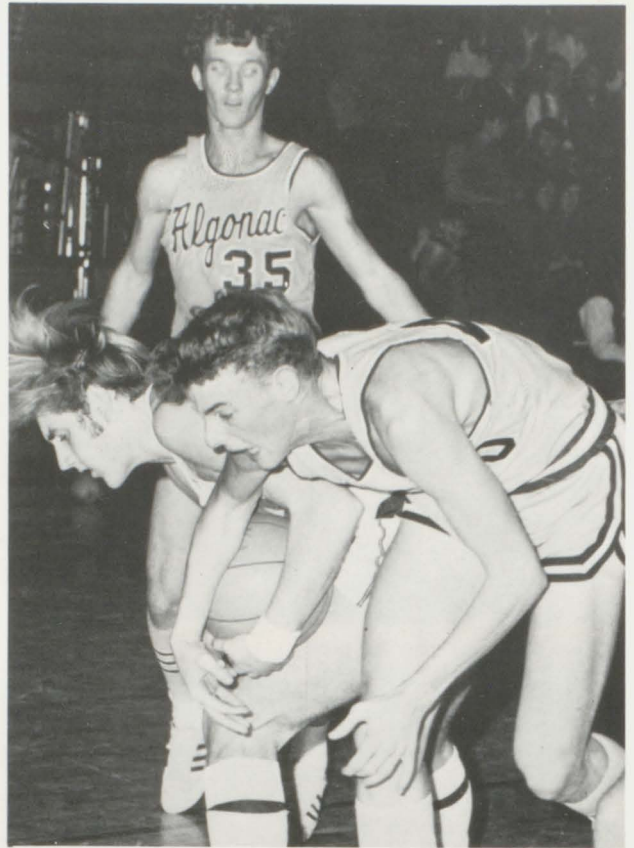

Summer treads on heels of spring.

A belly bulging.

The fairest.

Give me but my life.

All that you see is yours.

Let us all go to the place of assembly.

I have seen nothing stranger.

He churned his feet and knees hard.

Let everyone do as I say.

Unfair!

Hold me now no longer.

Antl come back alive!

One with that armor.

Fall on them hard!

Come along, you bad boy!

Give an accurate answer.

What kind of talk is that?

It is easy to be brave from a safe distance.

He just lay there too weak to move.

There is no "match" for the muscle men of Algonac. Enterint its third year, the wrestling team has proven it can hold its weight against the toughest opposition. For the grapplers, strength and endurance are the keys to victory, and the leadership of Coach Wight has led them in this direction. Although a fairly new sport at Algonac High, wrestling has become quite popular and its supporters are continuously increasing.

In all athletes strength, physical

The ground familiar to the men of track is but cinders and tar. The fleet footed victors go diligently to each practice, making ready their systems for the big meet. With their hearts sincere, and their pride showing through all, they fly down the black lanes. Their leaders, Coach Avers and Coach Gardner, take all of their potential, cultivate it, and use it for their many victories.

Yours is a tireless heart.

Not just an ordinary, run-of-the-mill newspaper; but a feature in itself! This year's Algonquin has amazed its readers with controversial, witty, and revealing articles. Selling at the same low price, it has managed to bring new things into view, such as the Horoscope page, Crossword Puzzles, and other amusing articles.

The hard-working members, under the leadership of Mrs. Ford and Mr. Holmes, the advisors, and co-editors Marilyn Smith and John Trix, have made the Algonquin a great success.

On August 25, 1970, Arthur Wrabetz left his parents and younger brother, and found his "home away from home" at the residence of John Trix. Our exchange student from Bottrop, Germany, has certainly been a welcome addition to the halls of AHS. Arthur has experienced many new things during his stay in Algonac, has taken part in many school activities, and has adopted the American way of life easily.

The J-Hop of 1971 with the theme, "A Little Bit of Heaven" was presented on January 23 by the Junior class.

Everyone was met at the Gates of Heaven by St. Peter and signed the Golden Book into heaven. With the help of the cupids the couples danced, talked, and strolled down the decorative halls carrying a little bit of heaven home with them that night.

As the curtain rose on opening night, it was evident that the 3 weeks of practice had paid off and the cast of 36 seniors were ready for their production of "The Mouse That Roared." Under the directorship of Miss Weber and Rhonda Morgan, the play was a great success. This satirical comedy was highlighted by scenery, costumes, sound effects, and lighting all done by the students themselves.

Although our time has come to leave one chapter in our life and move on to another, we will never forget our high school days: The school and its surroundings, the faculty and administration, our many old and new friends, and our emotions and feelings that have been shared through these barren halls and classrooms. Though we must leave, it is not the end of our history; no, for many of us it is just the beginning, the beginning of a chapter completely new and different in our life.

We leave happily for we have accomplished something, but we leave also in a trace of sadness. We are leaving our friends and our security, for who knows what lies ahead.

In closing the 1970-71 Algonquin, as well as my days at AHS, I wish the best of luck to my fellow classmates and my deepest thanks to all who have made one chapter of my life so enjoyable.
